NEW YORK INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY

NYIT (HOME institution) will be responsible for the following:

- Determining eligibility for financial aid
- Certifying qualified loan applications & TAP Grant (if applicable)
- Monitoring satisfactory academic progress requirements
- Processing pertinent refunds and/or repayments should this student withdraw
- Paying the HOST school directly the amount of aid for which the student is eligible once the funds are received and upon receipt of a copy of the student's bill
- Reporting the student's enrollment and all changes in enrollment to the National Student Clearinghouse.

The HOST institution will be responsible for the following:

- Confirming the student expense budget outlined
- Not awarding any financial aid to the student
- Verifying enrollment and notifying NYIT if the student withdraws (or stops attending) a class or classes within 30 days of the withdrawal. The host college will provide the withdrawal date and last date of class attendance to NYIT. The host college will not report the student's enrollment to the Clearinghouse.
- Will forward any unused portion of financial aid to the NYIT's Bursar Office, if applicable.
- Sending a copy of the student's bill to:
  - NYIT ~ Office of the Bursar
Attn: Toni Nagin
Northern Boulevard
Old Westbury, NY 11568-8000

The student will be responsible for the following:

- Complete the FAFSA and submit all necessary documents required by the institution, federal government, and state government for processing of his/her financial aid
- Obtain clearance from the NYIT Office of the Bursar, complete a Permission to Take Courses at Another College for Credit at NYIT form, and submit it to the NYIT Office of the Registrar to show that all credits taken at the HOST institution will transfer and count towards his/her degree at NYIT once they are successfully completed
- Arrange to pay any costs above and beyond their projected financial aid directly to the HOST school
- Obtain an official transcript from their HOST school upon completion of their study there and submit it to NYIT Office of the Registrar.
