COMLEX LEVEL 1
LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Students are required to take COMLEX Level I prior to enrolling in the third year Introduction to Medicine Course and pass COMLEX Level I prior to beginning third year clerkships. Students who are remediating a course may not take COMLEX Level I until the remediation is completed. A student who fails the COMLEX Level I Examination will be enrolled in a Directed Study course. The student must successfully complete the Directed Study course. The student is required to take the COMLEX Level I as necessary, during the period of the Directed Study course. If a student does not pass the required COMLEX Level I exam taken during the duration of the Directed Study course, the Assistant Dean of Student Services will notify the student that he/she is entitled to petition for a COMLEX Level I Leave of Absence (LOA). The petition must be submitted within 10 working days of the notification of the student’s exam performance. The student will be required to meet with the Student Progress Committee (SPC) for approval of the petition. The Assistant Dean for Student Services will notify the student of the SPC decision about the LOA request. If the LOA request is approved, the student must process the leave form with the Assistant Dean of Student Services. COMLEX Level I Leaves of Absence cannot exceed 180 days in length. If, at the end of this 180 day period, the College has not received documentation that the student has achieved a passing score, the student will be dismissed from NYIT College of Osteopathic Medicine with a status of dismissal, noting, the first day of the LOA as the date of dismissal. During any Directed Study or COMLEX leave of absence, the student will be required to work with a Learning Specialist and the Associate Director of Counseling and Wellness on an ongoing basis. Students may be given a maximum of three opportunities to achieve a passing score on the COMLEX Level I examination. Following three unsuccessful attempts to pass, a student will be subject to dismissal from the college. A student who is on a COMLEX Level I Leave of Absence may not hold an official leadership position in any college-related organizations and may not participate in any off-campus school sponsored conferences. Following passing of COMLEX Level I, the student may return from the COMLEX Level I Leave of Absence by filing the necessary paperwork with the Assistant Dean of Student Services. The student will then resume clerkships by the next scheduled start date of clerkships.
