New York Tech's CPI process is implemented to meet Middle States Commission on Higher Education (MSCHE) Standard V: Educational Effectiveness Assessment, which states: "Assessment of student learning and achievement demonstrates that the institution's students have accomplished educational goals consistent with their program of study, degree level, the institution's mission, and appropriate expectations for institutions of higher education."

Each department was asked to create a three-year assessment/evaluation plan to improve student learning for each of their degree programs covering the following academic years: 2022-2023, 2023-2024, and 2024-2025.

All degree programs' three-year Program Learning Outcomes (PLO) plans are available here: http://www.nyit.edu/planning/academic_assessment_plans_reports

This is a report on the PLO CPI plan implementation for the 2022-23 academic year.

The report should address the following points:

1. Program learning outcomes assessed

List the program learning outcomes that were assessed in AY 2022-23 based on your three-year plan (2022-25).

2. Method

Describe the method of assessment and attach measurement instruments (e.g., rubrics, exam items, scoring guide for a particular task, supervisor evaluation form, survey instrument, and other assessment tools).

3. Analysis

Provide criteria-based analyses of your results (disaggregated and aggregated data).

4. Interpretation

To what degree did students achieve the program learning outcomes based on your data analysis and expected learning outcomes?

5. Close the Loop

If the expected program learning outcomes were successfully met, describe how the program will keep or expand the good practices. If they were not successful, explain how you have or will refine the plan and begin the next cycle of Plan-Do-Study-Act \(PDSA\).

6. Describe how faculty were involved in the implementation of the PLO CPI plan and how the results will be communicated to all stakeholders.
