NEW YORK TECH CORPORATE PARTNERSHIP

Invest in the Future

As a Corporate Partner of New York Institute of Technology (New York Tech), your organization has the unique opportunity to engage within a community and expand its reach. A partnership allows you to contribute to the positive development of future employees, enhance engagement with students, expand recruitment presence and access multiple resources to promote your organization's brand.

For more than six decades, New York Tech has contributed to the development of professional workforces across the New York metropolitan area. Our graduates are employed by companies such as Amazon, AT&T, Boeing, Citigroup, Con Edison, Google, JP Morgan Chase, IBM, Microsoft, Motorola, MTA, Salesforce, and Tesla, among many others.

New York Tech offers 90+ technology-infused undergraduate and graduate programs that encourage critical creativity and a growth mindset for preparing professionals to have a meaningful impact on society as thought leaders and problem solvers. In disciplines such as architecture and design to the STEM fields, your employees can enhance their education with professional certificate programs, non-credit courses, personal enrichment and micro-credentials.
