

In order for your users to log into the Download Center and obtain a license to use the software, they will need to be registered. To register them, please send out emails to your users, containing the URL of the site license gallery (as shown below) and instruct them to find the link for your institution. Clicking on the link will take them to a registration page where they will have to identify themselves as a member of your institution. The Account ID field in the form will automatically fill in with your Account ID number.
