Please note: All documents that you submit, or are submitted on your behalf, to NYIT College of Osteopathic Medicine (NYITCOM) in support of your application for admission become the property of the NYIT College of Osteopathic Medicine and will under no circumstances be released to you or any other party.

DOCUMENT REQUIREMENTS

1. Course-by-Course Evaluation - World Education Services and Globe Language Services are the only two evaluation services that we accept. The official evaluation must be received directly from WES or Globe and is subject to approval by NYIT College of Osteopathic Medicine. The evaluation must state that the applicant has completed the First Professional Degree in Medicine (Doctor of Medicine) at a regionally accredited institution that is equivalent to the MD Degree in the United States.

   ATTENTION RE-APPLICANTS: If you submitted a WES or Globe course-by-course evaluation for the 2015 cycle, we will have it on file. You do not need to resend it for 2016.

2. TOEFL Scores - The TOEFL exam is required for all applicants. Please select the NYIT College of Osteopathic Medicine code 2486 when you take the test or request that your score report is sent to us. Copies cannot be accepted. TOEFL results must be less than 2 years old at the time of application. Please note that achieving the minimum acceptable TOEFL score does not guarantee selection.

3. Proof of U.S. Citizenship or U.S. Permanent Residency - Please note that Employment Authorization Cards are not acceptable.
